Down, down, down, down, down
Is that what you wanted?

You broke my heart a million times
I patched it up with all those lies
Now in my bed I can't describe
The visions (visions) that I see of you
You knew I wasn't fine
Still you made me wait in line
Months and months of wasted time
Chasing something so benign
You're in my head but changed my mind
Now you need (you need) me
I don't need you

Trapped in your dark
But I cannot get out
Paint your black heart
But I cannot get out

You dragged me
Down, down, down, down, down
Is that what you wanted?
Down, down, down, down
You broke every promise
They're crawling in my skin
But I'm not
Down, down, down, down
To be what you wanted

I was up 'til 4 last night
Hoping that you'd come back home
But maybe I should give up
I'm never gonna live up to your hopes
Now I hate my phone because of you
Check the text, it wasn't blue
Leaving me wasn't enough
You blocked my fucking number, too
Don't believe in love because of all the stuff you put me through Now I'm putting what we had in my past and now I'm done with you

Trapped in your dark
But I cannot get out
Paint your black heart
But I cannot get out

You dragged me
Down, down, down, down, down
Is that what you wanted?
Down, down, down, down
You broke every promise
They're crawling in my skin
But I'm not
Down, down, down, down
To be what you wanted

Down, down, down, down, down
Is that what you wanted?
