

Fearless

AViVA

Got a view of everything, I
Hear the voices whispering
But it's not so clear, with my vision fogging up with tears

All the voices whispering, so
Quietly I just can't hear
But it's so unclear, blood is roaring, rushing in my ears

On the edge of everything, open skies with no boundary
Woah
On the edge of everything

Feels like I'm falling apart at the seams
They say I'm fearless, and I don't know what they mean
Because I'm falling apart at the seams
Or am I fearless tell me is this just a dream?

In the dark
Tell me that I'm dreamin'
In the dark
Can't you hear me screaming?

Touch the edge of endlessness no
Point in trying to regret
But I can't quite catch, still I'm trying with my arms outstretched

Smell the scent of memory for Something I want to forget
But it smells like fear, is it me or is it someone near?

On the edge of everything, open skies with no boundary
Woah
On the edge of everything

Feels like I'm falling apart at the seams
They say I'm fearless, and I don't know what they mean
Because I'm falling apart at the seams
But I am fearless, tell me is this just a dream?

In the dark
Tell me that I'm dreamin'
In the dark
Can't you hear me screaming?
In the dark

In the dark
In the dark

Feels like I'm falling apart at the seams
They say I'm fearless, and I don't know what they mean
Because I'm falling apart at the seams
Or am I fearless tell me is this just a dream?

In the dark
Tell me that I'm dreamin'
In the dark
Can't you hear me screaming?

In the dark
