

HATE 2 LUV U

AViVA

AViVA...

Always feel the world is upside down
When I call you, I see clearly
When I'm with you, I always frown
But when I'm not, I miss you really
You'll never understand
But that isn't so bad
Things are better because of you
I guess you'll just have to believe me

I'm a contradiction, I'm alright with that
I know it's confusing
Hope you understand

I hate you
But I love you
I want you to leave me alone
I need you to come over here
But you are always in my face
You got me feeling, got me feeling
I hate you, but I love you
I want you to leave me alone
I need you to come over here
But why you always in my face?
You know I hate to love you

Wondering if we could pretend
There is no devil on my shoulder
Every day feels longer again
Both of us are getting older

I'm a contradiction, I'm alright with that
I know it's confusing
Hope you understand

I hate you
But I love you
I want you to leave me alone
I need you to come over here
But you are always in my face
You got me feeling, got me feeling
I hate you, but I love you
I want you to leave me alone
I need you to come over here
But why you always in my face?
You know I hate to love you

Oh-oh, oh-oh
Hate to love you
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Hate to love you

I'm a contradiction, I'm alright with that
I know it's confusing
Hope you understand

I hate you
But I love you
I want you to leave me alone
I need you to come over here
But you are always in my face
You got me feeling, got me feeling
I hate you, but I love you
I want you to leave me alone
I need you to come over here
But why you always in my face?
You know I hate to love you

Oh-oh, oh-oh
Hate to love you
Oh-oh, oh-oh
Hate to love you
