

Heaven & Hell

AViVA

I'm Heaven and Hell, the angel, it fell
Dancing to my songs in the key of demons
Psycho and sane, pleasure and pain
Holding by the songs in the speaker in the ceiling

You come to me looking for answers
Always holding court, you know I'm bored as hell
'Cause I won't fix your problems
Just make you fall under another spell

Glance over your shoulder, you've been here before
People forget, I remember them all
Another anonymous face at the do-o-oor
And glance over your shoulder, you've been here before
People forget, I remember them all
Voice in your head saying "Welcome the fa-a-all"

I'm Heaven and Hell, the angel, it fell
Dancing to my songs in the key of demons
Psycho and sane, pleasure and pain
Holding by the songs in the speaker in the ceiling

I'm a dream, and a nightmare (nightmare)
Make you wake up in a hot sweat
Heaven and Hell, the angel, it fell
Dancing to my songs in the key of demons

The people used to need me (Ahh)
But, I'm running out of patience for their call
They're drowning in their demons
Is it really my place to absolve?

Glance over your shoulder, you've been here before
People forget, I remember them all
Another anonymous face at the do-o-oor
And glance over your shoulder, you've been here before
People forget, I remember them all
