

OBLIVION

AVIVA

Second guessing is a habit, you see
Protective armor keeps me safe, keeps me free
You know I am not the one to command
This is a warning, it's a chance to prepare

'Cause I don't wanna do this anymore, no
I don't wanna feel like I'm alone, no
I don't wanna fake my moods at all, no
I don't wanna play by your rules, I won't

I'm not sure if I can keep holding out
Darkness calls and I don't know why

Falling into oblivion, oblivion
From the darkness you won't let me in, won't let me in
Falling into oblivion, oblivion
Calling out 'cause you're not listening, won't let me get inside

Got me staring into oblivion
Got me wishing for things that we undone
I know it's not easy to understand
'Cause being perfect is the mantle you wear

'Cause I don't wanna do this anymore, no
I don't wanna feel like I'm alone, no
I don't wanna fake my moods at all, no
I don't wanna play by your rules, I won't

I'm not sure if I can keep holding out
Darkness calls and I don't know why

Falling into oblivion, oblivion
From the darkness you won't let me in, won't let me in
Falling into oblivion, oblivion
Calling out 'cause you're not listening, won't let me get inside

(Falling into oblivion, oblivion
From the darkness you won't let me in, won't let me in
Falling into oblivion, oblivion
Calling out 'cause you're not listening, you better)

Falling into oblivion, oblivion
From the darkness you won't let me in, won't let me in
Falling into oblivion, oblivion
Calling out 'cause you're not listening, won't let me get inside
