

PSYCHO

AViVA

You chain me up, still speculating
Never enough
But soon you'll see I'm unrestrainable
I'm uncontainable
Any moment I'll have you begging, don't turn you back
Oh can't you see that I'm untameable
I'm unmistakeable

I'm hearing it all, I'm hearing it in my head
Whispering, they're whispering again
Hearing it all, they see me as a threat
Pushing me, keep pushing to the edge

You keep calling me a psycho
Got it in my head
Careful what you said
Think you might be right though
You made me a psycho
PSYCHO
You keep calling me a psycho
Thought that I was scared
But I came prepared
Think you might be right though
You made me a psycho

OH OH OH OH
You made me a Psycho
OH OH OH OH
You made me a Psycho

You won't stop me, don't bother trying
Never enough
Cause soon you'll see I'm unrestrainable
I'm uncontainable

I always search for light in darkness
You'll never think I'm weak
Cause I'm untameable I'm unmistakeable

I'm hearing it all, I hear it in my head
Whispering, they're whispering again
Hearing it all, they see me as a threat
Pushing me, keep pushing to the edge

You keep calling me a psycho
Got it in my head
Careful what you said
Think you might be right though
You made me a psycho
PSYCHO
You keep calling me a psycho
Thought that I was scared
But I came prepared
Think you might be right though
You made me a psycho
