

Runaway

AVIVA

Always on the outside looking in
Fingerprints on glass is all you are
Always on the outside looking in
'Cause your guise is paper thin

Falling into step has left you kinda dead
Is there any part that's really "you"? ("you"?)
Falling into step with all the words you said
Have left me doubting what is true (true)

Run, run, run, run, run, run away
Am I the one to save, am I the one?
Run, run, run, run, run, run away
Or maybe I'll save you, you

Spinning your wheels, can't get away
Tie in your tongue, nothing to say
Call it a phase but you're still here
Stuck in one place
Spinning your wheels, can't get away
Tie in your tongue, nothing to say
Call it a phase but you're still here
Stuck in one place

Falling into step has left you kinda dead
Is there any part that's really "you"? ("you"?)
Falling into step with all the words you said
Have left me doubting what is true (true)

Run, run, run, run, run, run away
Am I the one to save, am I the one?
Run, run, run, run, run, run away
Or maybe I'll save you, you
Run, run, run, run, run, run away
Am I the one to save, am I the one?
Run, run, run, run, run, run away
Or maybe I'll save you, you

Spinning your wheels, can't get away
Tie in your tongue, nothing to say
