

Bloom

Avoid

Time and time again
You always said you were my friend
But everything came crashing in
I never thought we would see the end

Hey, hey
Come here and punish me
Hey, hey
Come make it hurt
You win some, you lose some when life is a game
You can't be a player if you don't know how to play

Letting go because I want to bloom
Nothing lingers in my memory
You're never gonna be part of it

I'm done with all of the people
You won't get the best of me

Hey, hey
Come here and punish me
Hey, hey
Come make it hurt
Come make it hurt

Letting go because I want to bloom
Nothing lingers in my memory
You're never gonna be part of it

Step to this shit
You have no self-respect
A life of nothing
This is what you get

Letting go because I want to bloom
Nothing lingers in my memory
You're never gonna be part of it
With every choice you made, you never look the same
I'm on my bullshit, I embrace it
And I wouldn't have it any other way
