Avoid

Hey, how's it fucking going?
We're a band called Avoid from right here

I'll tell you something you don't want to know
They won't be happy 'til you're on a roll
Acidic down to your bones
This isn't automatic
Don't fight it, just let it roll
You can't make all of the choices now

(Bitch)

I think I lost my head (Lost my head)
It feels different
And I can't see my path (My path)
I have (I have)
Only seconds to think
And I'm trying to remember
What it's like to be me

(I love drugs)

I'll tell you something you don't want to know
They can't beat all of us so bring it when the heat comes
I don't wanna hear about it!

(I think I lost my head, woo)
It feels different
And I can't see my path (My path)
I have (I have)
Only seconds to think
And I'm trying to remember
What it's like to be me

I watch the world start to crumble in front of me
I don't know if I'll ever see it again
I've got a feeling of neurotic soul manipulation
You want to see? Look down on me?
I want to watch you motherfuckers fall

I can't see straight
Get me out of this hell I'm in

(It burns so well)
