

My World

Avoid

Go back to basics
That shit meant nothing to you
It's overrated
There's no debating
Your shots bounce off me
Can't phase me out
Life's real short when you run your mouth (hot damn)
Can't phase me out
1-2 slip and you're down for the count, down down for the count

You don't wanna fuck around and get loud
Around me you'll never make another sound
Better get out before it goes down
Welcome to my world bitch my town
Blood stains on your t-shirt
I told you I would show you what it it's like to burn
Crooked nose, glass jaw, leave you in a puddle
I'll write your name name on the wall with my bloody knuckles

Distance can't keep you far enough away
I'm over excuses forever be my enemy

Crashing hard
Sinking in
Crushing you
Getting closer
To the end
Rip your skull
From your skin
Mass destruction

Crashing hard
Sinking in
Crushing you
Getting closer
To the end
Rip your skull
From your skin
Mass destruction

Kalima
Suffering

Go back to basics...
