

Sour Apple

Avoid

The bitter thoughts in my head

Can't seem to get out of the shape I'm in Completely ignorant in return

It's safe to say the only peace you get
Is buried six feet deep with a whole in your chest

Save me
Can't escape that I don't mean anything
No sleep
Each night just another bad memory

If I could go back to the start
I'd playback where I went wrong
And tear it apart
Cause I can't stop destroying
Everything around me
It's becoming so unhealthy
And I'm right where it all began
The bitter thoughts in my head
The bitter thoughts never end

I'm just a piece of shit
Completely ignorant
I guess I'll never quit
I'm fucking over it

I'm better off not feeling sorry
Can't find a way because I'm stuck
Go back to the start
Change everything if I could

If I could go back to the start
I'd playback where I went wrong
And tear it apart
Cause I can't stop destroying
Everything around me
It's becoming so unhealthy
And I'm right where it all began
The bitter thoughts in my head

If I could go back to the start
I'd playback where I went wrong
And tear it apart
Cause I can't stop destroying
Everything around me
It's becoming so unhealthy
And I'm right where it all began
The bitter thoughts in my head

The bitter thoughts never end
The bitter thoughts in my head
