

Thoughts Of You

Avoid

Settling, I found a hole to hide
For a second I thought that everything was fine
In a moment everything fades for you

I know something's changing
My mind's erasing thoughts of you
Say you need me, say you need
But there's no saving you

All alone I found a place for you
Did you know I found myself in all this too?
You know it's all for you

I know something's changing
My mind's erasing thoughts of you
Say you need me, say you need
But there's no saving you

Take everything
I've had enough of your bullshit
No words gonna bring you back
What, what
Take me to the end of the world where I'll be set free
And pull you out of this

I know something's changing
My mind's erasing thoughts of

I know something's changing
My mind's erasing thoughts of you
Say you need me, say you need
But there's no saving you
I know something's changing
My mind's erasing thoughts of you
Say you need me, say you need
But there's no saving you
