

ALIVE

AVRALIZE

So let's begin with the simple word
Forgiveness
Say who's to blame
When we're drowning slow in our mess
I can't believe that we're stuck at this goddamn point
It's time to bury the egos
To stay alive

Under burning skies

Feel the light within your eyes
It's there I know
But your soul's still in disguise
Just let it go

And as we follow the path to hell
My vision changes
I ask myself
What has gone wrong with you and me

As the Earth is falling downwards
Through the never ending sky
I know we're still alive

I can't believe that this is the life we chose to live right now
Is there a way to end it
Can we quit this shit somehow

Our time is running out
Feels like we're staring down
This abyss we digged us
Till we're in the ground

Cause I'm dying to live

As the earth is falling downwards
Through the never ending sky
I know that
We need something to remind us
That were here and still alive today

We're dead inside
Buried alive
We're dead inside
See us choke on our pride

We're fucking dead inside
Buried alive
You're just another drop
In the river of life

Push it back

Cause I'm dying to live

As the earth is falling downwards
Through the never ending sky

I know that
We need something to remind us

Alive today

We need something
To remind us
That we're here
Alive

We're dead inside
Buried alive
Just avralize

We're fucking dead inside
Buried alive

Live today
