

CANVAS

AVRALIZE

Deaf
The silence of the night
I'm going under

Pitch black
Do I believe a lie?
In a world so unclear

So tell me is there meaning
To this journey
Struggling to turn back
And leave it all behind

Will I ever live for the moment
Believe all the omens
Trusting blind

I'm feeling so defeated
Look me in the eyes
Tell me that we're still not dead inside
Tell what keeps you breathing
What keeps you alive
Fight the good fight

Fight the good fight

Live's a canvas
We paint with every choice
A symphony of moments
Scream your lungs out

Scream scream
Scream your lungs out
Scream scream

So tell me is there meaning
To this journey
Struggling to turn back
And leave it all behind

Will I ever live for the moment
Believe all the omens
Trusting blind

I'm feeling so defeated
Look me in the eyes
Tell me that we're still not dead inside
Tell what keeps you breathing
What keeps you alive
Fight the good fight

You're shining from the inside
Your silhouette brings all my broken spirits back to life
You're shining from the inside
I bathe in your light

I'm feeling so defeated

Look me in the eyes
Tell me that we're still not dead inside
