

FREAKS

AVRALIZE

We're all freaks

Open your goddamn eyes
And tell me
Can't you see?
The time we wasted here
Creating chaos

We all were told
That this is life
But now
The time has come to switch it up
And break the habit
Too many endless fights
Not knowing wrong from right
The bomb is ticking so we
Got to live right now

I do not even care
What you're telling bout me
I'm standing here unbare
So don't you hesitate

Yeah

Obey your own thoughts
What you think is true
Is nothing more than illusion
So what do you choose?
Either die or you die alive
Go on lose your disguise
Feel it all
Forget all of your "sins"

Go

Cause we all are Free

When my bones
Turn to stone
I will remember
The life I owned
No regrets
Just tales to tell
In darkest times
Guide me

Right where we belong
Out of the dark to make it better
What are you hiding from
We're all just
Right where we belong
Out of the dark to make it better
Forget all your "sins"
We're all just freaks

Here is your final remedy
To wake up and live your greatest dream

I do not even care
I'm standing here unbare
The judgement makes me sick
Look at your own ways
Aren't we all just freaks?
Deep in fucking side
Right where we belong
Out of the dark to make it better
What are you hiding from
We're all just freaks
Right where we belong
Out of the dark to make it better
Forget all your "sins"
We're all just freaks

Believe
Demist your vision
