

like a boomerang

AVRALIZE

Reaching in the far
Don't stop me
When I'm
Counting all my scars
They haunt me

Better not cry
You better not feel
The pain will always come
Every time I try to heal
There's more darkness yet to come

Unforgiven
These words remain
Tell me can't you see I'm hidden
Wearing my disguise
Till my own demise

Cause it will break me down
Break me down baby
Cause it will break me down
Break me down baby

Slowly the air is getting thin
Steady pulses of despair come creeping in Restless
My thoughts overturn
Will I ever realize
What's really good for me

Clear my mind
I don't need a motherfucking parasite
Clear my mind
So many things I said are

Unforgiven
These words remain
Tell me can't you see I'm hidden
Wearing my disguise
Till my own demise

Cause it will break me down
Break me down baby
Cause it will break me down
Break me down baby

And it keeps coming back like a boomerang
It's so hard to let go
Fear the echo
I'm stuck while time's running through my hands
Feels like it's always the same in the end

I don't need a motherfucking parasite

Telling lies to me
Slither right through my brain
Telling lies to me

It's a part of me

Unforgiven
These words remain
Tell me can't you see
I'm hidden
Wearing my disguise
Till my own demise

And it keeps coming back
Like a boomerang
It's so hard to let go
Fear the echo
I'm stuck while time's running through my hands
Feels like it's always the same in the end
