AVRALIZE

You're my medicine
Yeah

Another day I feel the buzz
Deep inside my mind
The gates to hell are opened up
Feeling high and dry

You know I'm tired
Trapped in my desires
Everything just seems so off
I know you're tired
Trapped inside the fire
Laid by all my darkest thoughts

Will you be my love
You will always cure the pain
It feels so tough
When everything is breaking me down
Drowned in the sound
I can't breathe
Fill my heart with the glimpse that is left of me

Drowning deep inside your love
Euphoric kicks are tingling and I feel so much
Darkness slowly washes away
Without your rush there is no life in my veins

Will you be my love
You will always cure the pain
It feels so tough
When everything is breaking me down
Drowned in the sound
I can't breathe
Fill my heart with the glimpse that is left of me

You're my medicine
When it's breaking me down
Drowned in the sound
I can't breathe

I'm addicted
Never healing
Wish for the eye in the sky that keeps me breathing
The urge is kicking
Trying not to relent
Cause I will stay under your spell
Till the very end

Will you be my love
You will always cure the pain
It feels so tough
When everything is breaking me down
Drowned in the sound
I can't breathe
Fill my heart with the glimpse that is left of me

You're my medicine

Will you be my love
You will always cure the pain
It feels so tough
Will you be my love
You will always cure the pain
It feels so tough
