

Dead Flesh Awakened

Avulsed

As soon as the day has died awakens flesh equally dead
the hunt is on once again
I need to eat your head

We move in herds to kill run you down like prey
nothing you squeal will help so be quiet as you die

Bleeding away
just like the sour rain dying into undeath submerged in utter pain

Dead Flesh Awakened

the hunt is on once again

so be quiet as you die

I do not want to go this way please let me die
instead of being dead alive
