Beauty obsession

Horror to decay

She didn't want - time to pass

Aesthetic surgery

The only way - to keep youth

Deformed Human freak Monstrous Skinless

Clinic was her home
The surgeon - her best friend
Transforming body parts
No matter what - again and again

Deformed Human freak Monstrous Skinless

But her skin - was getting - emaciated Every time - a surgery - was done She didn't know - her cells - couldn't resist So many - transplants - from others' skin

Amorphous livid cheekbones
Distorted burnt eyebrows
Skinned bleeding bruised lips
Crushed rotting tight nose
Sunken scratched forehead
Dislocated deformed jaw

Her face was totally disfigured Beauty turned into rotting skin Her perdition was to be conceited Now she's got a horrid grotesque face
