Avven

Please, don't forget
That you are here now,
And the world can wit,
Your life won't last.
Take this moment to another step.

There is a sky
Of hidden wonders,
See the playful universe.
So take a step,
You shouldn't bother,
Life is a dance floating over you.

Join the dance,
Feel the rhythm,
All the world can wait,
There's no other chance.

There really is no place
You should arrive at,
No journey to complete,
"Keep on going!"

All the time it was
Just a dreadful hoax,
Waiting for the last chord.

Join the dance,
And feel the rhythm,
All the world can wait,
There's no other chance.
