

Use You

AWA

I'm out of love, but I'm still inviting
Come break me up, come give me the right ting
Can't fuck it up if there's no defining us

I don't know you
And I don't wanna get to know you
So I'm asking you politely
Darling, can I use you?
You can use me too, it's okay
You're not used to playing this way
Don't you worry, I will explain
All the rules, if you just come through

Is it better if I say I need you?
Is it better if I say I'll hold you?
Hold you longer and tight in the morning?
Even though I'll be up and get going
You know it's busy and the city gets so lonely, yeah-yeah
Don't be on a long ting, come give me your something

I'm out of love, but I'm still inviting
Come break me up, come give me the right ting
Can't fuck it up if there's no defining us
I'm out of love, but you're still invited
I'm outta trust but maybe you'll like it
Can't fuck it up if there's no defining us
You can use me
You can use me, eh yeah-yeah
You can use me
You can use me, eh yeah-yeah

Can I call you when it's late?
Come on over in the darkest night
We don't have to let it wait, yeah

Is it better if I say I need you?
Is it better if I say I hold you?
Hold you longer and tight in the morning?
Even though I'll be up and get going
You know it's busy and this city gets so lonely, yeah-yeah
Don't be on a long ting, come give me your something

I'm out of love, but I'm still inviting
Come break me up, come give me the right ting
Can't fuck it up if there's no defining us
I'm out of love, but you're still invited
I'm outta trust but maybe you'll like it
Can't fuck it up if there's no defining us
You can use me
You can use me, eh yeah-yeah
You can use me
You can use me, eh yeah-yeah

I'm out of love, but I'm still inviting
Come break me up, come give me the right ting
Can't fuck it up if there's no defining us
