

Who's Asking

AWA

Yo Awa, you did it again

They be like, are you with somebody?
Well, who's asking?
'Cause if you're askin', I might tell the truth
They're like, do you need somebody? (Somebody)
Well, that ain't happenin'
Unless you're askin', only when it's you

Don't wanna lie
But I ain't got the time
Unless I see you, but I like
I think that you should come and talk to me
I promise
Baby, I'll be honest
Ask me if I'm single
Give you no fake number, no

I've been sippin' on my drink, they wanna know my name
I just say I'm taken, 'cause it's easier that way
Baby, if you wanna see me, ask me any day
You can be the only one

They be like, are you with somebody?
Well, who's askin'?
'Cause if you're askin', I might tell the truth
They're like, do you need somebody? (Ooh)
Well, that ain't happenin'
Unless you're askin', only when it's you

I need somethin' that gon' fuck me up
Talk about you to my friends, they say you're not good enough
Think I need you where I need you, yeah
So, hide my feelings and my feelings, yeah-yeah
Oh-oh, ooh

I've been sippin' on my drink, they wanna know my name
I just say I'm taken, 'cause it's easier that way
Baby, if you wanna see me, ask me any day
You can be the only one

They be like, are you with somebody?
Well, who's askin'?
'Cause if you're askin', I might tell the truth
They're like, do you need somebody? (Do you need somebody?)
Well, that ain't happenin'
Unless you're askin', only when it's you
They be like, are you with somebody?
Well, who's askin'?
'Cause if you're askin', I might tell the truth
They're like, do you need somebody?
Well, that ain't happenin'
Unless you're askin', only when it's you
