

Believe

Awake The Dreamer

Direct your gaze toward that vessel at sea. So lost in the ocean waves
We're out of reach, you say without an ounce of belief
Dive in, don't be afraid of the deep

Take my hand and reach for what you're worth
Take to the skies and you will soar
Light the way, we'll light the way and let the deep surround your soul

Open your eyes the dreams awake your soul is wise, but this world is fake
Break down all of your walls remove the noose from your neck
Believe, don't be afraid of the deep

It's time to reach out and...

Take my hand and reach for what you're worth
Take to the skies and you will soar
Light the way, we'll light the way and the deep surround your soul

Don't settle for that which is in your own vicinity
Grasp for what is beyond your own reach
For in comfort we decay and in stagnation we die
Transcend your own limits, step out of the confines of your own self
Let your creativity flourish and your dreams ignite

Believe!

Take my hand and reach for what you're worth
Take to the skies and you will soar
Light the way, we'll light the way and the deep surround your soul

The deep awaits your soul
Unless a leap of faith will bring the vessel back to shore
We'll light the way and let the deep surround your soul

Dive in
Don't be afraid of the deep
Dive in
Don't be afraid of the deep
Dive in
Don't be afraid of the deep
