

Violence

Awake The Dreamer

In the shadows of your rage
I hide, I hide
Searching for a lie
A way to confide

Your anger, your storm
A storm that rages within
Tearing through my soul
Beneath my skin

No need for havoc
Or pain
Yet I'm shattered by this endless strain
Your fury into my skin, my heart

I am safe and sound in the sound of your silence
Your violence
Your violence
No need for destruction I'm breaking apart
Your violence
Your violence

No need for chaos no need for rage
In the dark when I'm alone
I realize

Your violence is in my heart
Tearing apart that seam that made me whole
(So scared, so scared)

No need for havoc
No need for endless pain
I'm crumbling under this eternal pressure
(No need for destruction, im breaking apart)

I'm lost in echoes of your
Violent art and
I don't know how
To get out of here
(No need for destruction, im breaking apart)

I'm lost in echoes of your
Violent art and
I don't know how
To get out of here
(No need for destruction, im breaking apart)

I'm crumbling under this eternal pressure
(Your violence, your violence)
Your violence is in my heart
Tearing apart that seam that made me whole

No need for havoc
Or pain
Yet I'm shattered by this endless strain
Your fury into my skin, my heart

I am safe and sound in the sound of your silence
Your violence
Your violence
No need for destruction I'm breaking apart
Your violence
Your violence

I am safe and sound in the sound of your silence
Your violence
Your violence
No need for destruction I'm breaking apart
Your violence
Your violence
