

Landslide

Awaken I Am

You're quick to throw the first stone
When another falls and fails
But would you throw your own?
Understand how I feel
I'm breaking down, failing, as I find it hard to deal
I've opened up my eyes to see all the wonders this world has fo r me
But I feel I have nothing
But I feel I have nothing

And I never thought that this could be
So easy but honestly, I'm in disbelief
With desperate thoughts of escaping
And I never thought that this could be
So easy but honestly, I'm in disbelief
With desperate thoughts of escaping

I've tried to see through the darkness to see the truth hiding within
I've tried to break down these old walls to see this fire, the light, my life
Hiding behind these mere shadows
That follow me here into this point of a helplessness

And I never thought that this could be
So easy but honestly, I'm in disbelief
With desperate thoughts of escaping
And I never thought that this could be
So easy but honestly, I'm in disbelief
With desperate thoughts of escaping

My thoughts are escaping
My thoughts are escaping, slowly fading
My thoughts are escaping
My thoughts are escaping, slowly fading
Darling, fading
I'm slowly fading
It's not always about the fight we have but about the ones its worth fighting for
worth fighting for

(And I never thought that this could be)
And I never thought that this could be
So easy but honestly, I'm in disbelief
With desperate thoughts of escaping
And I never thought that this could be
So easy but honestly, I'm in disbelief

With desperate thoughts of escaping
