

Alright?

awfultune

He is a little kid
Who wants a dreamer
Doesn't know that he had that world
At his fingers
And to the dark, he is no stranger
I see him fall apart, holding onto anger
I know he'll make it to the other side
Don't know what he's doing but he'll be alright
Be alright
He'll put up a fight
He's worth waiting for alright?
Fuck all the people who ever hurt him
He just needed someone that never deserted him
I know he's alright
He'll put up a fight
He's worth waiting for alright?
He's worth waiting for alright?
