

the end

awfultune

No longer in my head
Taking back everything I said
Cause it's old, I don't use it no more
No I don't
This is the new kind of love
The love that lifts your feet off the ground on their own
That different kinda special, the certain type of magic That I' ve never known

This is the end
Baby loving ourselves is the new trend
I'm talking real fucking healing, not pretend
I'm getting back all the money that I spent
Yes I am
This is the end
And if you like it, step on up take my hand
Cause I'm sending all my love to the haters, the exes And the b
ackstabbing friends
Thank you for the time that we shared
But know that this is the end

Feelin' good now
Getting that pep in my step again and the energies Moved now, w ow
Look how it all turned out (look how it all turned out)
Thanks for all the lessons
I let go of the words
The ones we said when
We were tryna make the other one hurt
I'm good, I'm moving on like I should
And I'd invite you but

This is the end
Baby loving ourselves is the new trend
I'm talking real fucking healing, not pretend
I'm getting back all the money that I spent
Yes I am
This is the end
And if you like it, step on up take my hand
Cause I'm sending all my love to the haters, the exes And the b
ackstabbing friends
But know that this is the end
