

Unkind Child

awfultune

What did you mean
When you said that everything will be okay?
I spent my time waiting for your reply
Can I see you again today?
Cause you made me feel so good
And you made me feel understood

But there's a child inside of me
And he wants to Scream
And he wants to grow up
And stop playing your games
Because you're just so mean

Fuck you!
Fuck what you took from me!
Cause I'm the unkind child
But I'm as kind as can be Love me!
