

weird!

awfultune

I wanna ride bikes with you
When I'm lookin' at the moon
I'm always thinking of you
If you were stranded on an island
And had nothing to do
You know I'm flying to you

Here I am
Drunken bad poetry
I'd wear a million different outfits so you'd notice me
Yeah, every song I write sucks
And every dream I have crushed
But I feel so stuck, I feel so stuck

So pinch me
I can't feel any part of my body
It's embarrassing and I'm so sorry
This song sounds like garbage to me
But you're all that I want and you can't see
Oh god I feel so awkward
When I'm not near you
I've felt this way for like a couple years too
And it just hit me and that feels so weird dude

Oh god it's you
I think it just hit me
And I feel so weird dude
It's you

Oh god I feel so awkward
When I'm not near you
I've felt this way for like a couple years too
And that just hit me and it feels so weird dude

Oh god it's you
It just hit me
Yeah it just hit me
And I feel so weird dude
