

Pacific Coast Highway in the Movies

AWOLNATION

(I wonder why these)
Tears came uninvited to me
I wonder if I told you, would I find some relief
I feel like such a stranger from my head to my feet
My silverscreen, my misery, my love, my defeat

Pacific Coast Highway in the movies
You promised me sunshine, why's it gloomy?
We'll wait 'til the night to catch the moonbeam
Pacific Coast Highway in the movies

I swear my shadow knocked me straight to the floor
I'm seeing stars, I promise I will trust you no more
My skin and bones betray me, how the hell should I think?
My silverscreen, my misery, my love, my deceit

Pacific Coast Highway in the movies
You promised me sunshine, why's it gloomy?
We'll wait 'til the night to catch the moonbeam
Pacific Coast Highway in the movies

I slept inside of a chandelier last night
I'm always looking for the bright side of life
I'm lonely, I'm confused, and I'm glad that you're here
Give me shiny things to stop my tears

Pacific Coast Highway in the movies
You promised me sunshine, why's it gloomy?
We'll wait 'til the night to catch the moonbeam

Oh God I think I'm beyond, la la la la
Do you belong? La la la la la
Cause I am beyond, la la la la la
Do you belong? La la la la la

I am beyond, la la la la la
Do you belong? La la la la la
Cause I am beyond, la la la la la
Do you belong? La la la la la

Yeah
Oh
