Emptiness Inside

AWS

(Millions inside) Millions inside were the sun feeded beasts.
(Emptiness) Emptiness descending for every suggestive.

Oh no!
I waited to much for your destructive lines!
My rain will cleanse every creep from this ground!
From this ground!

I heal now, I heal behind, away from the sun.
What throw me down to dust, to the shadow growing past.
This is an eternal run!

Oh no!
I waited to much for your destructive lines!
My rain will cleanse every creep from this ground!

Let's hear this pray and run through the night.
The ancient mantra instructs us to run!
Run.

Let's hear this pray and run through the night.
The ancient mantra instructs us to run, run.

Let's hear this pray and run through the night.
The ancient mantra instructs us to run!
Run!

I heal now, I heal behind away from the sun.
What throw me down to dust, to the shadow growing past.
This is an eternal run!
