

Inner Secrets

AWS

So now, as something's calling me to my inner reality
A depressive memory raising inside me
Superior hiding place, where I can find myself
And nobody can not find me in my loneliness
This god is a worn-out being
Forfeited portrait given for brace

Never never I found myself again
Never never I'll be the one again
Every night and every day
Just makes me annoyed
Keep my inner secrets

I never never found myself again
Never never I'll be the one again
Every night and every day
Just makes me annoyed
Keep my inner secrets

You tried to take me down
But you can change things, you can make this
Everything can be erased by time
Come and see the signs
You can't lose your path
If you can ever prove it for yourself

I've never been in clouds and you won't be my plane
Every night I'll prove it in my vain
Live for tonight and you'll be the one
Whose life was written with my blood

Never never I found myself again
Never never I'll be the one again
Every night and every day
Just makes me annoyed
Keep my inner secrets

I never never found myself again
Never never I'll be the one again
Every night and every day
Just makes me annoyed
Keep my inner secrets

You tried to take me down
But you can change things, you can make this
Everything can be erased by time
Come and see the signs
You can't lose your path
If you can ever prove it for yourself
