

Mankind Deserted

AWS

Everything can be taken care of with an 'amen'
That's what you think, but let me tell you that you're just mistaken
You blind you fool? Don't fucking point at me, you'll bite the dust forever
You were a zero, you are a zero, you will be zero, that's right
, sir!

God is gone? Where is he gone? God is just a no show
Blackened dust and sticking rust, burning trees, fiery meadows
Compared to this life in hell it's tame and warm and mellow
You're better off just to simply drown in your mother's womb, boy!

Freeze, leave it be
Your burning flesh is a lasting epitome
Of broken symmetry

Mama said, just sleep tight kid, no need to worry
But the skeletons in your head, I know, are forever hungry
Every day they steal upon you and eat your psyche
You were a zero, you are a zero, you will be zero, believe me!

God is gone? Where is he gone? God is just a no show
All humankind is left to burn in bright inferno
No place to hide, you're dead inside - there's no tomorrow
You're better off just to simply drown in your mother's womb, boy!

Freeze, leave it be
Your burning flesh is a lasting epitome
Of broken symmetry
