

Indefinite

Axel Flovent

Inside the fire
I thought I could move
Some sense or indefinite reliance
Too unsure to give it up

But we should dive into the light
I know it's right to feel both sides

Love you're right
The fire sees it
It's just too ambitious to let it go
Can we face the unbalanced silence
For another night to be alone

'Cause we should dive into the light
I know it's right to feel both sides

But If we wait too long again
Repeating what we've seen
Never taking our own advice
Then nothing will ever change

But we should dive into the light
I know it's right to feel both sides

And we should dive...
