

Moonlight

Axel Flovent

Keeping up with your heart
The tied up indecision I must follow
Careful when I'm bored
Forcing eye to eye
I can't do that anymore

Cause you see the stars
Burning out
Cause you see the stars
Burning out

Nothing seems that far
When you let it pass you by
Underneath the thought
That you're willing to share
At this hour

Cause you see the stars
Burning out
Cause you see the stars
Burning out

But I want you here
With me now
But I want you here
With me now
But I want you here
With me now
But I want you here
With me now
(Moonlight, moonlight, moonlight, moonlight...)

Cause you see the stars
Burning out
