

Crying In Pain

Axel Rudi Pell

Crying
I'm crying in pain

Rainy clouds on the horizon
Slowly fading away
I'm falling deep into my dreams
I still don't know what to come

Vague look into the future
But the answer so far away

Fallen angels
Heaven's in the rain
Still we're looking who's to blame
No end in sight
But hoping for the gain
But I'm still crying in pain

Underneath the skies
My worries start to sway
I'm drifting through a world of broken dreams
Reflections
When night turns into day
I sit here with endless time to pray

Vague look into the future
But the answer so far away

Fallen angels
Heaven's in the rain
Still we're looking who's to blame
No end in sight
But hoping for the gain
But I'm still crying in pain

Fallen angels
Heaven's in the rain
Still we're looking who's to blame
No end in sight
But hoping for the gain
But I'm still crying in pain

Fallen angels
Heaven's in the rain
Still we're looking who's to blame
No end in sight
But hoping for the gain
But I'm still crying in pain
