

Dancing Alone

Axwell & Ingrosso

She's shining
In a sea of people, see her smiling
Something 'bout her body caught my eyes and
I can't seem to look away
Oh, she's floating
Bumping into strangers like they're nothing
Acting like she know she's hiding something, yeah
I can't take my eyes away, no

It's like I've seen her face before
I know, but I don't know for sure
My friends ain't with me anymore
Oh, I've gotta know

Why she dancing alone
Why she dancing alone
Did she come on her own?
Seems so lost
So why does she keep on dancing
Dancing alone?

Why she dancing alone
Why she dancing alone
Did she come on her own?
Seems so lost
So why does she keep on dancing
Dancing alone?

(Why she dancing alone)
(Why she dancing alone)

She's hiding
I'm looking for her everywhere
I'm trying to spot her like a pin drop in the silence, yeah
I can't let her get away, no
Someone's behind me
We go back to back and we're colliding
Suddenly I turn around and right there
She's staring back at me

It's like I've seen her face before
I know, but I don't know for sure
My friends ain't with me anymore
Oh, I've gotta know

Why she dancing alone
Why she dancing alone
Did she come on her own?
Seems so lost
So why does she keep on dancing
Dancing alone?

Why she dancing alone
Why she dancing alone
Did she come on her own?
Seems so lost
So why does she keep on dancing

Dancing alone?

(Why she dancing alone...)
