

Movin' on without you

ayaka

Nothing's gonna stop me
Only you can stop me
Nothing's gonna stop me
Only you can stop me

It's the middle of the night, 3 am, I'm waiting
For the cell phone by my bed to ring, I'm acting like a fool
The alarm on my clock rings, just like a fairy tale
Even if I find the glass slipper, it'll be no good
If it's too much trouble for you to care, then let me know soon
Even I don't have that much time
I'm movin' on without you

I can't pretend anymore
That I don't know about your stupid alibis
We didn't always have these kind of memories
It shouldn't have been painful
Why?
Maybe it was too soon to play a good girl

Nothing's gonna stop me
Only you can stop me

The lines I planned to say were perfect
But I still can't get through, it's 4 am
When the night's too quiet, my thoughts get restless
I understand, but I still can't get enough sleep
I've forgotten that promise
I'll give you back your ring, so give me back my heart
I have to go on without you

It's hard, so I'll be the one to break up
It's not good playing a good girl
It shouldn't have been painful
Why?
Maybe it was too soon to play a good girl

Nothing's gonna stop me
Only you can stop me

Even if it's confusing, I want to be loved
Without saying it, I want you to understand
It shouldn't have been painful
Why?
Maybe it was too soon to play a good girl

Nothing's gonna stop me
Only you can stop me
