

Don't Worry

Ayo & Teo

I just woke up, I'm yawning
Gotta baddie she callin'
Tryna see if I'm stallin'
But we young niggas ballin'
On the court like Michael Jordan
This a sport man no Spalding
Can't believe all the talkin'
And the hate it's dissolving
Who do you need in life?
(Who do you need in life, who do you need in life)
She hit me up like "Who do you love?"
"Who do you love?"

Don't worry, I'm alright
You know I'm rolling up
She get me goin'
First thing in the mornin'
For sure love at first site
I could feel my heart thump
She come with a warning
This ain't no performance

Don't worry, I'm alright
You know I'm rolling up
She get me goin'
First thing in the mornin'
For sure love at first site
I could feel my heart thump
She come with a warning
This ain't no performance

This bitch dangerous
But when I look in your eyes
I can see the whole world in it
When I lick on ya skin
Ya it's sweet sweet, yeah it's splendid
Coppin' all the Dior
I adore all ya visits
I be needing you here like bitch
You said you'll listen
Sorry for all the things
Even the things that's not forgiven

And you know that I'm here
You can pass me your tears
And I keep 'em away
And I bring 'em back here
And I bring 'em back here

Don't worry, I'm alright
You know I'm rolling up
She get me goin'
First thing in the mornin'
For sure love at first site
I could feel my heart thump
She come with a warning
This ain't no performance

Don't worry, I'm alright
You know I'm rolling up
She get me goin'
First thing in the mornin'
For sure love at first site
I could feel my heart thump
She come with a warning
This ain't no performance
