

Again

Ayo

I've made myself a promise
I've sworn and even crossed my heart
I said I wasn't gonna fall again
I wasn't gonna fall in love
I've changed who I used to be
Didn't laugh as much no more
But I was gonna drown in my tears
Till you brought me back to shore

I've been hurt, hurt and hurt
All over again and again
And when I thought it couldn't get worse
You taught me to love and broke the curse

I've been hurt, hurt and hurt
All over again and again
And when I thought it couldn't get worse
You taught me to love and broke the curse

I've been through many phases
I hope this here ain't one of them
For I don't need to go to new places
And I don't need no other man
In my book of life's content
I pray you'll be my happy end
But if somehow there will be another chapter
I hope you'll always be my friend

I've been hurt, hurt and hurt
All over again and again
And when I thought it couldn't get worse
You taught me to love and broke the curse

I've been hurt, hurt and hurt
All over again and again
And when I thought it couldn't get worse
You taught me to love and broke the curse

Now I love again
I'm alive again
Now I give again
I can smile again
Again and again and again
