

Boom Boom

Ayo

One and one, two and two
Put your hands up or he will shoot you
Three and three, four and four
Better get your ass down to the floor
Five and five, six and six
Always watch out for the pics
Seven, eight, nine and ten
Send this message to all your friends

Why do we have a government if there's no justice, just ignorance
Why do we have a system if there's no organization, just organized crime
And why do we still vote if we all know things won't be different
'Cause the president will never make no difference
Why do we prefer to hide knowing that it just ain't right
Why are we too scared to fight for something that is worth to die for

(Boom boom!) Another boy dead
(Boom boom!) Shot into the head
(Boom boom!) Another mother crying
(Boom boom!) Couldn't save her son from dying

(Boom boom!)

(Boom boom!)

(Boom boom!)

What the hell is wrong with the government?
What the fuck goes on with the government?
Tell me where, where is our promise land?
If I knew the way I would leave today

What the hell is wrong with the government?
What the fuck goes on with the government?
Tell me where, where is our promise land?
If I knew the way I would leave today
Today, today, today
I would leave today

One bullet, two bullets, three bullets, four
Five and six just to be sure
His body drops he can't take no more
His hands were up when he hit the floor
