

I Am Not Afraid

Ayo

Who knows what it will be
I don't so why should I worry?
If you think you know more than me
Keep it for yourself 'cause I don't wanna know
You can think what you want
I know you're not the only one
Who thinks to know the end
Well I don't believe in ends 'cause
I believe in him

I am not afraid to love him
I am not afraid to let him know
I am not afraid to show them
I am not afraid no

I am not afraid to leave him
I am not afraid to let him go
I am not afraid to hold on to it
I am not afraid 'cause this is beautiful

If I believe in what you say
Of course things might end up that way
'Cause words are string and so is faith
It mis my belief that can make things change
I used to be like you
I based my plans on what I thought I knew
But when tings came they were different
That's when I understood I didn't know a thing

I am not afraid to love him
I am not afraid to let him know
I am not afraid to show them
I am not afraid no

I am not afraid to leave him
I am not afraid to let him go
I am not afraid to hold on to it
I am not afraid 'cause this is beautiful
