I Need You

Right when we met for the first time I felt like I've known you all of my life Something felt weird, so strange and queer And yet everything you said so sincere I didn't know why I felt that way It must have been kismet, I've found my soulmate Like Adam and Eve we're meant to be Together forever inseparably

I need you Like my favorite sweater I need you, yeah You make me feel better I need you Like the sunny weather, yeah Oh I need you More than ever

Over and over I've said to myself I can't give away what's somebody else's This cannot be, it must stay a dream As much as I'd love to have you for me There will be no secret, no story to tell No need to keep it, no going to hell As much as I'd love for this to be real As much as I want you, as much as I feel

I need you Like my favorite sweater I need you, yeah You make me feel better I need you Like the sunny weather I need you, yeah More than ever

A speaker needs sound Like a drum needs the beat Every king needs a crown Like a fish needs the sea Religion needs god Justice needs truth People need love We needs me and you

I need you Like my favorite sweater I need you, yeah You make me feel better I need you Like the sunny weather I need you, yeah More than ever I need you!
