Nothing

Ayo

I remember when I felt bad about myself
I'd run to the store and empty all the shelves
A Gucci bag and dress, Givenchy shoes and sweater
I was convinced this shit would make me feel much better
I've had them all, Christian Louis, Louis Vuitton
But none of them guys could fill my empty heart

'Cause I had nothing, nothing
When I thought I had it all
I had nothing, nothing
But an empty heart and soul
I had nothing, nothing
'Cause money couldn't buy me love
I had nothing
'Cause what is everything if you don't have love
Tell me what is everything if you don't have love

Whatever I was looking for when I looked in the mirror
I couldn't find it, I was blinded, blinded by flaws
I didn't love myself at all, didn't think I was beautiful
Didn't have someone to love me, so I had to buy some more
More, and more, and more

But I had nothing, nothing
When I thought I had it all
I had nothing, nothing
But an empty heart and soul
I had nothing, nothing
'Cause money couldn't buy me love
I had nothing
'Cause what is everything if you don't have love
Tell me what is everything if you don't have love

Money can't buy me love
Say, money can't buy me love

I had nothing, nothing
When I thought I had it all
I had nothing, nothing
But an empty heart and soul
I had nothing, nothing
'Cause money couldn't buy me love
I had nothing
'Cause what is everything if you don't have love
Tell me what is everything if you don't have love

Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
