

Awake

ayokay

Where'd you go
Now I know
I made it seem like it was wrong
I thought it through and it's not gone
It's in my head
I can't forget
All the things that didn't last
If only we were more attached

But if I ever loved you
I would lose control
Baby, it is time for me to step away
And if I ever loved you
I would never fall
The thought of you it keeps me
Awake
(Keeps me awake)

Here's a chance
To run away
From all the things we left behind
It shouldn't be this hard to find
What's in the way
I can't replay
All the memories we could've had
If only you realize that

But If I ever loved you
I would lose control
Baby, it is time for me to step away
And if I ever loved you
I would never fall
The thought of you it keeps me
Awake
(Keeps me awake)
(Keeps me awake)
(Keeps me awake)
