

Don't You Worry

ayokay

She's got the authentic diamonds
Circling her eyes in fear
Threatening her enemies
Trust is on a private island
But you only out at sea
Hidden under lock and key

I found him inside a heartbreak
With all the finer fences stripped away
She said it was mine, if only I would lie
To take a piece and stay awhile

Don't you worry how I'm gonna make it
Wandering the stars and revelling
Sooner or later all of this paper
Won't mean anymore than anything
Won't mean anymore than anything

Wandering the stars and revelling

He's got other ways persuading
Buried in the desert sand
Fences and a rented gun
Drinking with the constellations
Shouting at the galaxies
Wishing they were not surreal

I found him inside a mistake
With all the finer fences stripped away
Told him he'd be fine, if only he would like
To take a jump within the light

Don't you worry how I'm gonna make it
Wandering the stars and revelling
Sooner or later all of this paper
Won't mean anymore than anything
Won't mean anymore than anything

Wandering the stars and revelling
