

Surrender To The Feeling

ayokay

Looking at you like everything you do means something
There's no room to breathe when you're everything to me or nothing

'Cause you light up my world
Now I can't hide at my worst
And we smile as we burn
As we burn

Surrender to the feeling of love for you
Hoping that I'm always enough for you
Burning in the feeling of love
And we don't, and we don't, and we don't let go

There's nowhere to go when everything you know is sinking
I won't let you go, you're the only one who knows to listen

'Cause you light up my world
Now I can't hide at my worst
And we smile as we burn
As we burn

Surrender to the feeling of love for you
Hoping that I'm always enough for you
Burning in the feeling of love
And we don't, and we don't, and we don't let go

Surrender to the feeling of love

Surrender to the feeling of love for you
Hoping that I'm always enough for you
Burning in the feeling of love
And we don't, and we don't, and we don't let go
