

(Louddaaa)

Noticed the stars in the sky were lost
No its not me it's just the place I was born
I thought this world was sane enough
It's hard being the D I T R
The D I T R

I disobeyed
I taught you better
My mama yelled
Omomi wa da
Your child is changing
She started drinking
She's doing drugs now
To end this feelings

She don dey do runs girl
She's a bit shy God have mercy
Smoke a little Indian hem
Or se igbo labi
She's still your baby
Nothing has changed please
She's only aging
Peer pressure bad ni

Loving ties
Scary fight
All we know is loving people we don't like
Just to vibe
Then we end up drinking liquor
In the night
With a smile
Claiming that we satisfied
With all this fights
Punches everywhere
Like it's Christmas light

I disobeyed
I taught you better
My mama yelled
Omomi wa da
Your boy is changing
He started drinking
He's doing drugs now
To end this feelings

He's a diamond in the rough
Now he's just playing with a gun
Does he go to school anymore
Or is he the king of his cult

'Cause I disobeyed
I thought you better
My mama yelled
Omomi wa da
Your child is changing

They started drinking
He's doing drugs now
To end this feelings

Omomi wa da
Wa da
