Ayra Starr

(L-L-Louddaaa)

Every night that I cry o
Just dey blame myself for loving you like I did
You like I did
I go like to know your plan oh baby
'Cause it's been four weeks of calling, you no dey pick Yeah, you no dey pick

Do you believe in us?
See as we blend like gin and juice
Made in heaven, that's me and you
That's me and you
Do you believe in trust?
Transparency in all we do
I'm so lonely, I'm missing you
I'm missing you

I'm lonely
Baby boy I am sorry jor
I be human being, oh
I be human being, oh
Miss your loving
Baby, shey you no miss me jor
I be human being oh
I be human being oh, oh yeah
I be human being, oh
I be human being, oh
I be human being, oh
I be

Every day I'm thinking about you
And I want your loving all night long
Hold it
I like the way you control it
I like it when you just hold me
When I see you in the morning
My sugar, my blues yeah
What would I do?
Mm, what would I do? Yeah

Do you believe in us?
See as we blend like gin and juice
Made in heaven, that's me and you
That's me and you
Do you believe in trust?
Transparency in all we do
I'm so lonely, I'm missing you
I'm missing you

I'm lonely
Baby boy I am sorry jor
I be human being, oh
I be human being, oh
Miss your loving
Baby shey you no miss me jor
I be human being, oh

I be human being, oh, I
(I be human being, oh)
You know say I be, yeah, yeah
(I be human being, oh)
I be human
I'm human
I'm only only human
(I be human being, oh)
I'm human
I be human being, oh
Oh I, oh I
I be human being, oh I
I be human being, oh
I be human being, oh
