

Comatose

Ayreon

No need (5x)
No need to feel the pain
No need to feel betrayed
No need to feel inane
No need to feel afraid

Wake me up before I die, hold me close
As I gaze upon to the sky, comatose
No reason to survive, I suppose
Wake us up before we die

No need to feel desire
But I need you with me
No need to feel so small
But I need to feel secure

No need to feel the fire
But I need to feel free
No need to feel at all
But I need to know for sure

Wake me up before I die, hold me close
As I gaze upon the sky, comatose
No reason to survive, I suppose
Wake us up before we die
